"I'm gonna shoot the Meter Reader"

The electric light bills came out last week, and the reaction has been as expected. Most of Wilmington's residents know that there is a surcharge to take care of the extra cost of the fuel used in producing electricity. But the surcharge still comes as a shock.

One of the calls was from Harold W. McKelvey of Border Avenue. His light bill had gone up to $88 plus. Harold was a much aggrieved man. He understood the reason for the cost - but $88 for himself and his wife, with a TV as their only "luxury" was something.

Actually Harold McKelvey had a low bill, compared to many. Mrs. Ryan, of Nathan Road vowed that she was going to shoot the meter reader. Mrs. Ryan was grinning as she said it - but her bill was up in three figures. She was only one of a dozen or so who expressed their feelings about light bills to the Town Crier.

Meanwhile the Reading Electric Light chairman, John Crocker, has presented an "energy crisis" petition to Congressman Robert H. MacDonald (D-Malden). The petition had been signed by over 3000 Reading Light Department customers.

The petition urges action on six fronts, in Congress and the Federal Government.

1. Order the Justice Department to determine if any illegal, anti-trust activities have been engaged in by the corporations controlling the flow of energy to our homes and businesses.

2. Instruct the cost of living council to use the power already given it to halt runaway prices of petroleum products.

3. Provide for the equitable distribution of petroleum products throughout the nation without penalty to those regions without native fuel resources.

4. Create a Federal corporation with power to act as a yardstick comparison in the petroleum industry for the discovery, production and bulk delivery of oil products.

5. Direct the Federal Power Commission to protect the consumer from efforts to penalize him for conserving energy while profits go unchecked or unregulated.

6. Take immediate action to prevent the large oil corporations, or any business or person, from making excess profits while the people of the United States pay greater and greater prices for essential energy. Mr. Crocker indicated to Congressman MacDonald that the real key to lower prices for electricity is in the cost of fuel and making excess profits while the people of the United States pay greater and greater prices for es-

DOES EVELYN MORRIS WIN THE GOLDEN PEA SPOON? Mrs. Evelyn Morris of 109 Middlesex Ave., Wilmington picked peas for supper, from the family garden on June 11th (Tuesday). She thus is in line for an award of the Town Crier Golden Pea Spoon, a wholly mythical award for the first person to pick enough peas for supper from the family garden, each year.

Ann Latta of Lavin Street, Wilmington thought she was going to win by picking peas on June 10th, but Ann did not have enough for a family supper and thus did not qualify.

In these entries also in the Town Crier were who picked peas for supper earlier than did Evelyn?

Hey Ho for the Fishing Derby

It is the Lions Club Fishing Derby, at Silver Lake, Saturday. Several hundred enthusiastic youngsters are expected to take part, according to Leo the Lion, who is the second vice president of the Lions Club, and who is assisting Robert Smith of 24 Deli Drive. Mr. Smith is the Kingfisher of the Derby.

The big problem is: What youngster is going to catch the biggest fish? Leo has a prize for that youngster, and there are other prizes too.

Registration is to begin at 9:30 am and the serious business of catching fish is to begin at 10 am, and last until 1 pm. There is several hundred feet of beach, at this portion of Silver Lake, according to Leo and there are fish out there waiting to be caught.

Of course it is a serious business. People who shout, and splash around in the water don't catch fish - nor do others nearby. Leo will be waiting across from the end of Glen Road at 9:30 am for the kids who want to register for the Fishing Derby. All persons are asked to respect private property, and all daddies who bring their kiddies to the Derby are asked to respect the No Parking laws. Father Leahy has given permission to park cars in the rear of St. Dorothy's Church, and Louis Hailson, pharmacist at the Silver Lake Pharmacy, has given permission to park cars in the rear of the pharmacy building. There will be hot dogs and coffee, and soda pop too.

Ruling on Official Map

Town Counsel says Selectmen may act as Board of Appeals

Town Counsel Alan Altman has ruled that the Wilmington Board of Selectmen is acting properly, when it acts as a Board of Appeals in cases involving the Official Map of Wilmington. He made the ruling Tuesday evening during a meeting with the Wilmington Planning Board.

An Official Map, such as has been adopted by the Town of Wilmington, is a means by which a community may prevent the erection of homes in areas where there is no paving or other municipal services. Official maps may be adopted in a community under the provisions of Chapter 81 of the General Laws, which also spells out provisions for local by-laws on an official map, and for a Board of Appeals in which aggrieved persons may contest rulings made by local officials on the official map.

There have been three such appeals in Wilmington, and in each case the Board of Selectmen, rather than a Board of Appeals has sat in judgement. The Planning Board, Tuesday night, was questioning this, inasmuch as there is a phrase in Chapter 81 which says a Board of Selectmen "shall" appoint a Board of Appeals within three months.

The discussion involved, among other things, the provisions for a By-Law on the Official Map, and the meaning of the word "shall." Mr. Altman seemed to feel that the word "shall" was used permissively, in the statutes, but he further observed that there is no By-Law in Wilmington as spelled out in Chapter 81, and therefore the Selectmen do not have to appoint a Board of Appeals in cases involving an Official Map.

The particular case that was being argued involved land owned by Richard Stuart of 84 Shawsheen Avenue. Mr. Stuart owns land off Carmel Street, four or five houses. Carmel Street is in the King Street area, off Glen Road.

Stuart owned the land at the time that the Official Map of Wilmington was adopted, and Carmel Street, as a way, was thereby erased from the map. He appealed to the selectmen, telling that board that he did have a building permit, but was waiting for the Land Court to affirm his title to the land and that when he went to renew his building permit the Building Inspector refused.

The selectmen, acting as a Board of Appeals, ruled in favor of Mr. Stuart, and he had a map prepared, for the Planning Board to sign, which he intended to file in the Registry of Deeds in Lowell. One of the families living in the area had a small lot of land - fifty or sixty feet wide, and Mr. Stuart gave that family enough land to make the lot one hundred feet wide, and thus conform to the zoning in the area. But that meant that the lot lines, as they had existed, were changed.

Mr. Stuart, so far, has been three times to the Planning Board to get a new map signed. He has not been successful. Tuesday night was his third visit, and acting Chairman Bob Leahy was concerned because there was no plan to pave Carmel Street. Stuart pointed out that he was spending money to put in an eight inch water main, and that he would be improving the street so that it would be better than formerly, in that he proposed to regrade Carmel Street. He also demonstrated that there are three homes, off Carmel Street, across from where he wants to build.

The Planning Board was almost ready to sign, but Mr. Leahy suggested that Stuart bring the plan back after he had finished construction of the homes.

Needs Plan Mr. Altman had been discussing the problem with the Planning Board before Mr. Stuart arrived, and he listened to the discussion with Mr. Stuart.

After Stuart left Altman pointed out that the area involved had never been a part of an approved (signed by the Planning Board) subdivision plan. "Now," he told the Planning Board, "I am saying he does need a plan."

Before he left the meeting Altman said he was going to check into two details, involving the signing of plans. One of these involved the legality of the changing of boundaries of the old plan, and the other involved the "Yodhose Case," so-called, a landmark decision which involved annexed streets in the Town of Billerica.

Deek Stuart, it seems, still has problems. Three times he has been to the Planning Board, with a plan, and three times he left that Planning Board with the belief that there was an agreement to sign. Three times that was not the case.

Selectmen had a vote Two for and two against for an Ass't T.M.

Wilmington's selectmen had what is to be believed to be their first vote on a candidate for Assistant Town Manager, Monday night. The vote took place in executive session.

The vote was two in favor and two against, and one abstaining.

The name of the candidate for whom the selectmen were voting for the Assistant Town Manager job is not known to the Town Crier, but it is said that he is a person well known in municipal circles in Eastern New England. The salary being discussed at the time is understood to have been in the vicinity of $14 thousand a year.

There are a number of candidates who have applied for the position which was authorized in the budget at the annual Town Meeting in March.

Summer office hours at the Planning Board

The Wilmington Planning Board now has new summer office hours, for its office in the former Mildred Rogers School. Roger Watkins, intern planner, will be in the office daily from 10 to 11:30 am and from 2 to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday. At other times he may be out of the office on Planning Board work.

The planning board, on Tuesday signed a plan for 8.12 acres of land in North Wilmington, all that is left of the former Bob Evans farm.

The land is northerly and westerly of the Boston & Maine RR and southerly and easterly of Route 98, and has no immediate access. The plan was presented for recording purposes by Mr. Evans.

The board was notified by the Town Manager that a lot of land off Park Street, formerly owned by Leonard Barbo of Stoneham, is now the property of the town. The land, practically a house lot in size, was a "back entrance" to Fordham Road, during the construction of the industrial park. Now it is closed to all purposes except Fire Trucks.

The Rev. Miller has introduced many evangelists in services at the Wilmington Methodist Church and many have been lead to Christ.

One of his favorite Bible verses is, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." We would agree that Christ is living out His life in this faithful servant.

A reception June 23rd from 7 to 9 pm at the Fellowship Hall of the Wilmington Methodist Church is planned in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Miller and family. Their many friends are invited to attend.

TSONGAS PREPARES FOR 100-MILE FIFTH DISTRICT WALK

Congressional Candidate Paul Tsongas (D-Lowell) will begin his 100-mile walk of the Fifth District, Monday June 17th at 11:30 am.

The present Middlesex County Commissioner, and former Lowell City Councilman plans to leave from the historic Minuteman statue in Lexington and two weeks and approximately 150 miles later, return to the statue after visiting every Fifth District community.

During the course of the walk, Tsongas will meet with various leaders in the 34 towns and cities, along with Democratic officials and supporters. Halfway through the walk, on June 24th, a press conference is planned in Lowell at 1 pm. A press conference is also scheduled for Lawrence at 10 am on June 26th. Both will be held at the respective City Halls.

The long-term, long distance campaign walk is not new to the Democratic Congressional Candidate. In 1972, he made a 310-mile loop around Middlesex County. In part, he attributes his ticket-winning performance on the reform plans for Commissioner to that walk.

Gravel Hearing for Fosters Pond land

JOHN CRONIN, (left) listens to the discussion about the Foster's Pond land. At right, in white shirt is Pete Liberman of the Town Engineer's office.

There are still a few places in this world in which peace and quiet are valued. One of these is the region of Foster's Pond, in Andover and Wilmington. The residents are organized into a Foster's Pond Improvement Association. They seek to preserve the woodlands, the wildlife, and a way of life that is almost out of existence. To this extent they build their own roads, thank you, so that Andover and Wilmington have no problems in that respect, and they see to it that all deeds are so written that the Association has first option, any time that land is to be sold.

Monday night there was a hearing in Wilmington Town Hall for a proposed gravel operation, in the area.

Practically everyone from that part of Foster's Pond was there - and in opposition. There is already one operation, gravel licensed. It is removing gravel from a small area of land for the dual purpose of providing a playground for children, and for providing gravel for the widening of some of the roads.

The new operation was to be behind the first one. It was to be, the selectmen were told, an extension of the first - to level off the land. It would be done by the J.J. Cronin Company of Wilmington. They are just about the best gravel company in Massachusetts, a firm that always cleans up, and grades and seeds after an operation.

St. Thomas to fete Fr. Mackin Saturday at 5:30 Mass

St. Thomas parishioners headed by the Rev. Ernest P. Pearsall, Pastor and the Rev. John Calter, Associate Pastor, will join family and friends in celebrating the 35th anniversary of ordination to the Priesthood of Fr. Francis W. Mackin. Fr. Mackin has been Associate Pastor at St. Thomas for 16 years.

Fr. Mackin was ordained in Rome and said his first Mass in St. Peter's, where he frequently returns. He speaks the Italian language fluently and has preached many Italian Missions in this country. He also founded and ran the first Parish of Our Lady of the Ozarks in Winslow, Arkansas where he built the church and rectory.

Fr. Mackin's other assignments have been at Our Lady of the Presentation, Brighton; St. Mary's, Lynn, and Sacred Heart, East Boston. A large committee with Fr. John Calter as honorary chairman and Mrs. Margaret Smith as chairlady has arranged an enjoyable program.

A procession made up of Altar Boys and clergy will enter the church accompanied by St. Thomas' Choir with Mrs. Patricia Hennes as organist and choir director. Solist during the Mass will be Luigi Vena. Mr. Vena has been a friend of Fr. Mackin's for over 20 years and he was the soloist at President Kennedy's funeral mass. He will sing Cardinal O'Connell's Juravit, Francis, Panis Angelicus and the Ave Maria.

Fr. Paul Sweeney, Pastor of St. Gregory's, Dorchester, who preached at Fr. Mackin's Silver Jubilee ten years ago at St. Thomas will be the homilist. Immediately after the Mass a buffet will be served on the parish grounds with Donald Marshall in charge. There will be music and entertainment.

Among the invited guests are Fr. Joseph Leahy, Fr. Lawrence Dronnan of St. Dorothy's, Fr. Thomas Croke, Pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel in Quincy, brother of the late Fr. Edmund W. Croke former Pastor of St. Thomas; Fr. Edmund L. Parker, St. Joseph's, Medford and Fr. Paul W. Berube, St. Mary's in Chelmsford.

Orange Line MBTA Extension Reading has a discussion

The Planning Board of the Town of Reading had an open discussion last week with a number of persons concerning the possible extension of the "Orange Line" of the MBTA to the Wilmington and Reading line. The discussion was in the Walter Parker Junior High School, with an audience of about 100. Some of the statements made were:

Representing the MBTA were Richard Dempsey and Charles Appleby. The statements of the two men revealed nothing that was spectacularly new. There is to be a study of the Orange Line, from Haymarket Square to Oak Grove Mall, and the Design Engineer has started to collect data on plans to continue to one of three places, (1) the Reading-Wakefield line at Rt. 128; (2) Reading Center and (3) the Wilmington-Reading line at Route 95. This will take eight to ten months to study, hopefully, before an "impact" statement is made.

Mr. Dempsey said that the Orange Line would be one of three items for which application for funds could be made from the Department of Transportation. A grant from the DOT could be for 80% federal participation and 20% participation by the "local" (MBTA) authority. There would have to be final public hearings before any decision would be made by the DOT.

Nils Nordberg
Rep. Nils Nordberg (R) of Reading seemed to be well prepared on the subject of Financial Impact.

The MBTA formulae, which formerly assessed the "terminal" towns more than others has been revised, Mr. Nordberg said. A "terminal" station no longer will have the financial disadvantages it had in the past, and the "terminal" relationship is not to apply to any stations constructed after 1972. The Massachusetts cigarette tax, he said, has for several years borne the MBTA costs.

"To stand here and make a crystal ball projection for five years in the future is obviously impossible," Nordberg said.

"But," he said, "it is unlikely that a terminal station (one at the end of the tracks, etc.) will be a financial burden for the town or city in which it is located."

"We provide highways as a public service - should we not provide rails as a public service too?"

He went on to speculate that if the answer was Yes, the revenue might come from the gas tax. And he finished his discussion by reiterating that "we cannot expect any community to accept the burden of a terminal station."

Route 128
Peter Murphy, of the Mass. DPW told the audience that Route 128 between Reading and Wilmington will have changes in the next few years. The plans may have provision for a parking lot, near Route 95, subject to an environmental study. It will be necessary to identify the needs of the commuter.

If the Orange Line goes to the Wilmington-Reading line there will be "Parking on the fringe of the town line" - The DPW is trying to discover what area will have the least environmental impact and the least objection. The planning should be ready in a few months, after which there will be fifty or sixty public meetings in the Reading-Wilmington area.

"We won't build anything until we have assurances from the community that they want it." "It is our intent to serve the public interest - It is going to be a long process."

Local reactions
A synopsis was presented by a Planning Board member of what were supposed to be the local reactions of the towns around Reading to an extension of the Orange Line. It was not clear, in all instances, that the reaction was merely to the Orange Line - bus routes may have been involved too. The opinions apparently came from someone in the Town or City Hall.

Wilmington: No Orange Line within town bounds. North Reading: Town Meeting voted it out. Stoneham: Voted out. Town now pays $200 thousand for MBTA. Melrose: Has a Position Paper. Woburn: No one seems to have talked about the Orange Line extension. Whoever did the talking reported that Woburn is on the R & M track to Wilmington, and further that there is discussion of bus service from the new industrial area in Woburn to the Orange Line.

The Rev. Willis Miller performed the ceremony before the flower-decked altar of the Wilmington United Methodist Church at 3 p.m., and organist Mrs. Prasadie enhanced the ceremony with her rendition of traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white chiffon featuring long lace-trimmed sleeves and a heavy lace shawl. Her flowing veil fell from a Juliet hat with attached mantilla. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and purple violets.

Cathy J. Bowser served as maid of honor in a full length lavender gown with matching picture hat and carried a bouquet of white daisies and purple baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were Deborah Bowser Mills, Carol L. Bowser and Lorie J. Bowser, all sisters of the bride. They wore lavender frocked gowns with matching picture hats and carried bouquets of white and purple daisies and white baby's breath.

First Membership Drive Choate Memorial Hospital

The first membership drive for Choate Memorial Hospital in its 60-year history has produced 148 charter members to date, subscribing $10,000 in annual dues only one month after the program began.

Walter Geisenhainer, chairman of the hospital development and community relations committee, released the early report this week and stressed that the membership drive will continue in the months ahead "until all residents of the area have had every opportunity to become members of the hospital family."

Also included in his report was an analysis of results to date of an unusual poll of public opinion about the hospital. Questionnaires were mailed starting early in May to a random sampling of the population of the region served by Choate and a high rate of return has produced very significant information of great help in long range planning for the hospital.

More than 90 per cent of those replying in the questionnaire said they or members of their households had received care at Choate during the last ten years and a large majority listed Choate as their first preference.

Many indicated they had received care in the emergency department at Choate.

Mr. Geisenhainer pointed out that the most frequent comments written by respondents at the end of the questionnaire concerned emergency services.

He emphasized that the most urgent need is for greatly enlarged facilities, since the department now admits patients at the rate of more than 22,000 a year - ten times as many as in 1965 and up 36 per cent in only the last three years. Plans to expand the emergency department have been completed and work will begin as soon as approval is forthcoming from Massachusetts officials, Mr. Geisenhainer said.

He expressed gratitude that a very high percentage of respondents consider the services at Choate to be above average or excellent. The chairman pointed out that Choate Hospital is continuously being monitored by a variety of federal, state and non-governmental agencies and organizations as well as by auditing committees and groups inside the hospital.

More than 90 per cent of those answering the questionnaire indicated their hospital costs were met primarily through some form of insurance.

Correct answers to various questions in the poll show that the room rate at Choate is low compared to those of other suburban hospitals; the 530 professional, technical and administrative personnel is consistent with national averages for a hospital this size; Choate trustees receive no compensation or personal benefits from their work; the average stay of an inpatient is approximately eight days; more than 117 patients have been admitted to the 18-bed mental health unit at Choate since it was opened early this year.

Mr. Geisenhainer expressed gratitude to all "who have participated to date in both the membership drive and public opinion poll. He urged all who have not returned their questionnaires to do so without delay, calling their views and opinions "of great value to the trustees when they make plans for the future of Choate Memorial Hospital."

Naval Academy seeks '75 nominations

Dick Storms, Navy Recruiter for the Lowell area has announced that young men between the ages of 16 and 21 who are interested in applying to the U.S. Naval Academy for the class entering in July 1975 should write their congressman as soon as possible to request a nomination.

The Academy, highly rated academically among the country's colleges and universities, offers a well-rounded educational program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree and commission in the U.S. Navy or Marine Corps. All tuition is paid by the Navy, and each student earns a salary while he is attending, in addition to being eligible for free medical and dental care.

There are many sources for nomination to the Academy. Nominations can come from senators and members of the House of Representatives or the President and Vice President of the United States. It is not necessary to know these officials to apply.

For immediate information, contact Dick Storms at 208 Central Street, Lowell, phone 452-0511. As the local representative of the U.S. Navy, he can assist in gathering information on the Naval Academy and put interested young men in contact with a local representative of the Academy.

WILMINGTON SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Sun. June 2. Big W jumped on Compugraphic's Harry Cimon for six runs in the bottom of the first inning and the Ford unit went on to whip the Graphic unit, 9-7. Gary Warford (3-1) struggled to his second season victory for Big W.

In the middle encounter Sweetheart snapped Deming Way's short three game win streak with a convincing 17-9 win in the competition loop. Jim Tildsey went the distance to pick up his initial win of the season, while banging out four hits in an 18 hit attack. Dennis DeMaggio chipped in with four hits including a homer.

Joe Gilligan (1-3) went the route while absorbing his third seasonal mound loss for Deming.

Jay Dee Builders handed Compugraphic their sixth straight loss in the title cap to the tune of 11-2. Art Bibeau (3-4) and Bill Ritchie (a homer) paced a 13 hit Jay Dee attack to back the seven hit pitching of Dick Elliott (4-2).

Mike Hennessy (0-3) lost his third straight in a route going performance. Steve Mungovan ripped out three hits in a losing cause.

Mon. June 3. The Forc machine ran their win streak to three with a 13-8 triumph over Scully to open the evening's festivities. Vin Shano (single and homer) and Jim Ritchie (3-4) led a 18 hit Big W attack to hand Scully's Bucky Gish (3-1) his initial setback of the campaign.

Bob Stewart (3-0) went the distance despite allowing eleven hits to pick up the win.

Deming Way jumped out to a 5-0 fifth inning lead behind Ted Wicks and it looked good for the oldsters. Smithcraft came alive in the last of the sixth to score four times and then in the bottom of the seventh Dick Gillis singled home Phil Butler with two outs to give Smithcraft a 6-5 win.

Art Dello Iacono (3-2) picked up the win as he bore down over the last three frames to hurl shut-out ball.

Stapan could not hold a 10-4 lead after four frames and ended up on the short end of a 13-12 score to Converse. Mickey Rollings (1-2) was the loser in relief of Paul Burke, while Bob Mansfield (1-1) hurled two hit ball over the last three innings to pick up the win in relief of starter Al North.

Tues. June 4. Brewsters came from a 9-5 deficit to pull out a 13-12 win over Jay-Dee. John O'Melia of Brewsters and George Pratt of Jay-Dee slammed solo homers each in the contest.

Gary Smith (4-2) struggled to the win, while Jay Tighe (3-2) balanced his pitching ledger.

DRC came up with a run in the last of the seventh to edge Miceli, 8-7 in a game which saw the lead change hands four times. John Knowlton (3-0) picked up the win with a strong fourth inning relief stint, while Ollie Olson (5-3) was the hard luck loser.

In each of the races, there were three heats of from 5-6 competitors, and in order to avoid trials, semi-finals and finals the officials decided to run three heats and pick the two top for the finals, eliminating the necessity for each finalist running three heats.

In the trials McCully broke smoothly, worked up to a one yard lead and held it over the last hurdle before being taken at the line by Maine champion Paul Sweatt. In the finals Rick broke well once again maintaining a wafer-thin lead through the fifth hurdle. At this stage, Winchester's John Friborg put on a rush, caught Rick and pulled Sweatt and Larry Hole from Rhode Island with him.

Friborg's time of 19.2 was 1/10 off the New England record and McCully's 19.5 was good for a school record and personal best.

Co-captain Stewart didn't fare as well. He was pitted against the number one runner in New Hampshire and Rhode Island, Paul Nichols of Concord and Jerry Shannon of Tull Gate.

Running out of lane two, Doug and the two needed runners got away even. Coming around the curve, it was evident that the race would be tight, and coming down the straight away there was little variation in position. Jerry Shannon of Rhode Island had managed a two foot lead over Stewart with 80 yards to go; he inched up on his opponent but was nixed out for second place by two inches at the wire. In a photo-finish, pictures

Buzzy Couillard (3-1) tossed a two-hitter to lead Sweetheart to their third straight win and five in their last six outings past Brewster, 6-1. Tom Beaton led the victors with three hits and three rbi's. Gary Smith (4-3) had his short two game win streak snapped.

Wed. June 5. K of C won their second in a row in convincing style, routing Compugraphic B's, 15-2 behind the one hit pitching of Jim Hachey (7-1). John McCabe (3-3) and Steve Gail (a homer to end the contest), paced a 15 hit attack. Harry Cimon (2-6) took the loss in six plus innings of pitching.

Converse drubbed Scully, 19-8 in the second game of the night as the Rubber unit slammed out twenty hits with George Arthur leading with three hits and five rbi's. Al North (5-1) went the distance in a rocking chair performance. Yentile (1-3) lasted only four innings with Bucky Gish mopping up for Scully.

In a battle of streaks of a different nature, Big W ran their unbeaten skein four and seven of their last eight with an 11-4 triumph over McNamara. The Tire Company lost their third straight as they fell behind 8-0 early in the contest and it was too much to make up. Bill Mutchler (3-0) tossed a five hitter to gain the win, while Monty Monteiro (2-3) lost second. The defensive play of the season took place in the second frame as Terry McKenna caught Jim Meehan's bid for a home run as Terry crashed over the center field fence in the second frame to preserve Mutchler's shut out at the time.

Thurs. June 6. Smithcraft belted Compugraphic, 13-5 in a come from behind effort. The winners trailed after three frames, 5-2 but a six run explosion in the last of the fourth put Smithcraft in front to stay and then five more finished it off in the fifth frame. Paul O'Donnell (3-1) went the route for the win, while Mike Hennessy (0-4) is still seeking his first seasonal win.

Sweetheart snapped its three game losing slide with a 15-10 triumph over Miceli. Bill Wall (2-4) was the winning hurler, while Ollie Olson (5-4) lost his second straight.

Fri. June 7. In a make-up of a May 23 rain-out, Sweetheart belted Brewsters and George Pratt of Jay-Dee slammed solo homers each in the contest. Gary Smith (4-2) struggled to the win, while Jay Tighe (3-2) balanced his pitching ledger.

In the second make-up contest, this one from May 29th, Sweetheart ripped past Smithcraft, 8-5 behind the pitching of Gary Smith (5-3). Larry Driscoll led the Brewster attack with a brace of hits good enough for three rbi's.

showed Paul's head just in front of Doug's chest as the three men were no more than a hair's-breadth apart.

After barely making the finals by edging out Doug, Nichols came back in the finals to win the race. Stew has nothing to be ashamed of. After all, the Wildcat co-captain scored 168 points for the MVC champs this season.

Kevin Field tossed a two-hitter, while striking out twelve varsity batters to lead the alumni to 4-3 win over the Wildcats last Saturday morning. Jim Melser, Larry Foster and Paul Olson led the Alumni with a hit each.

For Coach Gilla's crew, Doug McLain had a two run rbi and Phil Sinopoli had the other hit. Barry Foster was the hard luck loser once again as his teammates were unable to hit.

WILMINGTON LITTLE LEAGUE

Majors: Week of June 3-8: The Yankees continued on their winning ways downing the Red Sox 9-3 on Monday night. Jimmy Litwinsky hurled a complete game and Joey Simunovic shined on both offense and defense. On Tuesday night the White Sox defeated the Indians 4-1 behind the pitching of Danny Marshall and the fielding of Benny Scorsaro.

At the Rotary Park on Wednesday the Orioles thumped the Red Sox 14-4 with Earl Paulson picking up the win. Archie Deletter provided both the pitching and the hitting with help from Brendon Kelly and Brian Bulger to give the Angels a 11-3 win over the Twins at the North.

In a Thursday night clash the Yankees remained a top pack by edging the Tigers 5-1. Frank Sargent had four good innings of relief to preserve the win, while Sal Carbone allowed only one hit for the Bengals.

The Angels won their second game in a row, beating the Orioles 5-4. Roy Bromander went the distance and Mark Laliberte showed some heads up base running in scoring the winning run. The Orioles got a rally going in the last inning with a two run homer by Earl Paulson, but the defense of the Angels shut the door for the win.

A grand slam by Bobby Ethier got the Tigers back on the winning trail as they drubbed the winless Twins 8-3. Sal Carbone chipped in with three hits while Peter Mullarky had a good day on the mound.

Misars: The Mets dropped two in a row last week being edged by the Giants 10-9 and 12-7 by the Dodgers. Walter Surritte pitched a five-hitter, while whiffing 13 Met batters. The Dodgers came from a 10-0 deficit to nip the Redlegs 14-12. John Harris tossed four innings of one-hit relief and Mike Dornfeld had a clutch bases loaded triple in the Dodgers 11 run third inning.

The Mets bounced back with a 13-0 pasting of the Cardinals. The Cubs whipped the Giants 17-10 and the Pirates topped the slumping Braves, 16-8.

Farms: The Owls handed the Falcons their first setback of the season, 14-9. The Dolphins pulled into first place behind the four home runs of Gary Croft, edging the Penguins 15-17 in a slug fest. The Eagles smashed the Hawks 22-7 and then forfeited to the Ravens 10-0 while the Hawks bounced back to beat the Crows 17-9.

WILMINGTON RECREATION TIDBITS

Soccer 11 in S.A.Y.S. Championships???

Coach Harry Latta's "AA" club concluded their regular season last Sunday on a winning note defeating Danvers to bring their seasonal mark to 6-1-3. In earlier action the Recs tied Bedford 1-1 on May 11th with Dave Maloney tallying the lone Wilmington marker. On Wednesday May 29th the "AA" club belted an undermanned Winthrop eleven, 15-0.

On June 1 in a make-up of an April 18 rain-out, the RECs topped Bedford, 8-0 behind the goal scoring of Chris DiCecca (2), Bob Swisher (2), Mark Kalkanajian (1) and Dave Maloney (1). Sunday June 2nd saw Stoneham walk off the field in the waning moments of the game over a referee dispute. The Recs were leading 6-2 at the time, and if the league determines Wilmington the winner then Coach Latta's crew will be at 7-1-3 and with the decision the northern league championship hangs in the balance.

Beautification Program at West Intermediate School

A program of cleaning up, at the West Intermediate School in Wilmington by several hundred persons, is in full force. Being called "The West Intermediate Program" the idea originated with two teachers, Virginia Littlefield and Richard Malcolm.

The student response was overwhelming. Many student suggestions were incorporated into the program which allowed them to implement, perform and construct the suggestions.

Trees and shrubs are being provided by the Wilmington

Beautification Committee and the Wilmington Conservation Commission, who in turn were aided by Mahoney's Rocky Lodge Nursery of Winchester.

Students and teachers are working the entire week, and are involved in bush trimming, clean out of grounds, clean up of the stream, clean out and pick-up, painting of bike racks, and trash barrels, planting of new trees and shrubs, construction of planters for flowers, painting of posters and designs for school interior, and athletic field repair.

THE WEST IS BEST: Is the slogan. Sandy Theriault and friends are shown on a clean-up mission. Over 300 kids are involved.

Chamber of Commerce Businessman's Luncheon

Members of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and guests will be meeting at 12:30 next Tuesday in the 129 Restaurant on Lowell Street for an informal luncheon in which some of Wilmington's new firms will have representatives to speak of their companies.

President Bernard Brady of the Chamber will preside, and the Function Chairman is Joseph Maffeo of the Middlesex Bank. Expected speakers are Frank Arago of Datametrics, Randy Boyce of the Converse Rubber Company, Jim O'Connor of General Electric, Winston Corbett of Dawson-MacDonald Company and Joseph Lewis of the Crusader Paperboard Company.

Letter

Dear Lads:
Once again Playschool of Wilmington comes to an end. I would like to say thank you to all those who participated in making it a success. However, if it were not for the following women who volunteered their time Playschool would never have been possible this year.

These include: Judy Bina, Myrtle-Fredricka, Annet Shelley, Barbara Bavoal, Donna McLaughlin, Helen Higgins, Kathy Nealon, Rita Boudreau, Maureen McHugh, Ellen Martin, Eileen Pasquerella and Cristel Galvin.

Also let me take this opportunity to thank the people at the Wilmington Methodist Church and the Congregational Church of Wilmington for all they did. With great appreciation, Theresa G. Chisholm, Director of Playschool
